

Media Contact:

- Marian Gerlich/Ed Placidi
P&G Communications
818-786-8687, pgworld@aol.com
- Becky Blaine, Public Relations Manager
The Arizona Biltmore
602-954-2550, beckybl@arizonabiltmore.com

A Series of Literary Evenings at the Biltmore Features AZ Jewish Theatre Co. Reading of “Hard Love” by Israeli playwright Motti Lerner

PHOENIX, Arizona, (DATE), 2009 – A literary evening being hosted by the Arizona Biltmore will present a reading by the Arizona Jewish Theatre Company of the acclaimed play “Hard Love” by Israeli playwright Motti Lerner.

Hard Love is a timely and powerful drama that explores the challenges and difficulties of today’s globalized world where men and women from different cultures, backgrounds and religions are meeting, falling in love and getting married. The play grapples compellingly with the intense love between a man and a woman that is torn apart by religious conflict.

When: Monday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m.

Where: The Arizona Biltmore’s Aztec Room.

Admission: $15 at the door – proceeds from admission benefit the AZ Jewish Theatre Co. & includes a glass of wine at the event. Cash bar will also be available during the event. Seating reservations should be made in advance by calling the Arizona Biltmore at 602-381-7660.

Who: Featuring two of the Valley's finest actors, Maria Amorocho and Gene Gansle.

For more information contact Arizona Jewish Theatre Company, 602-264-0402, or log on to www.azjewishtheatre.org.

Celebrating its 80th anniversary this year, the Arizona Biltmore is among the world’s most recognized resorts for its distinctive Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired architecture, luxurious facilities and storied history as a playground of the rich and famous. Facilities include eight swimming pools; seven tennis courts; two championship golf courses; signature dining in Wright’s at The Biltmore, and comfort food in Frank & Albert’s. More information: (602) 955-660, 800-950-0086, www.Arizonabiltmore.com. The Arizona Biltmore is managed by Hilton Hotels and is a member of Hilton’s exclusive Waldorf Astoria Collection®.

###